

Programme structure

Monday, 9 Feb	Study day 1	More general and introductory topics
9:30-11:00	Session 1	Welcome What is a state crime and why is that interesting for criminology? (Introduction into key concepts) (Elmar Weitekamp and Stephan Parmentier)
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:45	Session 2	The role of empire, power differentials and structural victimization (Peter Iadicola)
12:45-14:30	Lunch break
14:30-16:00	Session 3	State crimes and criminological theory (Dawn Rothe)
16:00-16:30	Coffee break
16:30-18:00	Session 4	Criminological background of international criminal law (Michael Bohlander)
18:30		Evening out the "Luise" pub
Tuesday, 10 Feb	Study day 2	Introductory topics and case studies
9:30-11:00	Session 5	A criminology of crimes of states: Monstrous, mundane, and miscalculated (David Friedrichs)
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:45	Session 6	'Crimigration' – criminalisation of immigration (Gavin Slade)
12:45-14:30	Lunch break
14:30-16:00	Session 7	Water boarding – from torture to 'enhanced interrogation technique' (Wolfgang Form)
16:00-16:30	Coffee break
16:30-17:30	Session 8 (1 h!)	The International Criminal Court – the end of impunity?! Panel Discussion
17:30-18:00	Closing session
18:30		Evening out at the "Luise" pub