Prof. Dr. Christian CALLIESS is Professor for Public and European Law at Freie Universität Berlin, Germany and holder of an Ad Personam Jean-Monnet-Chair. From 2015 till 2018 he was on leave from academia in order to work as Legal Adviser to the European Political Strategy Center (EPSC), the In-House-Think-Tank of the President of the European Commission, and Head of its Institutional Team. He has been contributing among others to the White Paper process on the future of the EU and the Road to Sibiu/Leaders Agenda, the Task Force on Subsidiarity, the Security Union (including Cybersecurity), migration as well as the reform of the Euro-area.

He was invited as an expert in hearings of the German Parliament (Bundestag) concerning European and Constitutional Law (especially on the Treaty of Lisbon, the EFSF, the ESM, the Blueprint and the Banking Union) as well as in hearings of the Commission of the EU (budget reform) and the EP (AFCO May 2015; "In Camera" Workshop on Euro Area Budget August 2016). From 2012-2014 he was the legal representative of the German Parliament (Bundestag), appearing in the German Federal Constitutional Court and the Court of the EU (among others) in the ESM- as well as the OMT-Case.

Christian Calliess studied law at the Universities of Saarbrücken and Göttingen. After his First State Examination he received a Master in Advanced European Studies at the College of Europe in Bruges (Belgium). In 1995 he finished his Second State Examination in Berlin and obtained his PhD at the Europa-Institut of University of Saarbrücken with a book on the principles of subsidiarity and solidarity in the EU, published in second edition in 1999. He joined the Europa-Institut as an Assistentprofessor in 1995, where he finished his habilitation treatise with a book on constitutional and environmental law in 2000 that was awarded the price of the Gesellschaft für Umweltrecht. From 2000-2001 he taught at the Goethe-Universität in Frankfurt/Main, in 2001 he became Professor and Director of the Institute for European Law at the Karl-Franzens University in Graz, Austria. In 2003 he became Professor and Director of the Institute of International and European Law at the Georg-August University in Göttingen. Since 2008 he is Professor at Free University of Berlin.
