

State Crime: Crimes of the Powerful

One-week course for Ph.D. and advanced Students in Berlin (Germany)

June 19 - 23, 2023

The goal of this course is to provide a well-rounded, internationally oriented overview of the field of state crime/crimes of the powerful with a focus on “the enemy within”. By being exposed to and participating in current research of expert scholars from across the globe, students will gain a deeper understanding of how and why these types of crimes occur as well as what has been or can be done to constrain them. The course will also provide students with the foundations to understand the complexities and symbiotic nature of these crimes. Students will be given the opportunity to present their own paper or project. The course will be taught seminar style and in English language for a max. of 30 students as an in-person/online hybrid course.

No course fee.

The course will offer a certificate of completion.

If you are interested, please contact sekdrenkhahn@zedat.fu-berlin.de and submit your up to one-page letter of motivation until March 31, 2023. Please indicate if you would like to give a presentation.

Course Directors:

Dr. Wolfgang Form

Professor Dr. Kirstin Drenkhahn

Freie Universität Berlin, Germany

Freie Universität Berlin, Germany

wolfgang.form@fu-berlin.de kirstin.drenkhahn@fu-berlin.de
