

ANGLO-GERMAN PERSPECTIVES ON EU FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS

JOINT SEMINAR
8-12. DEZEMBER 2014
BERLIN UND CAMBRIDGE

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Freie Universität

Berlin

Michaelmas Term 2014

Joint Seminar

of the

Freie Universität Berlin (D) and the University of Cambridge (GB)

Anglo-German Perspectives on EU Fundamental Freedoms

General Topic

This joint seminar of the Freie Universität Berlin and the University of Cambridge brings together students from both universities. It deals with recent trends in the area of EU fundamental freedoms. Particular attention will be paid to the commonalities and differences in doctrinal analysis of the subject area.

Topics of Seminar Papers

1. Recent developments in the CJEU's case law on free movement of goods, e.g. CJEU, Case C-456/10, judgement of 26.4.2012; Case C-171/11, judgement of 12.7.2012; Case C-385/10, judgement of 18.10.2012; Case C-639/11, judgement of 20.3.2014, and others
2. Recent developments in the CJEU's case law on the freedom to provide services, e.g. CJEU, Case C-383/10, judgement of 6.6.2013; Case C-176/11, judgment of 12.7.2012; Case C-209/11, judgment of 24.1.2013; Case C-509/12, judgment of 6.2.2014, and others.
3. Recent developments in the CJEU's case law on the free movement of workers, e.g. CJEU, Case C-202/11, judgement of 16.4.2013
4. Recent developments in the CJEU's case law on the freedom of establishment, e.g. exit taxation, cross-border merger, or CJEU, Case-539/11, judgement 26.9.2013
5. Recent developments in the CJEU's case law in the area of the free movement of capital, e.g. direct taxation
6. The relationship of free movement of capital and the freedom of establishment
7. The relationship of free movement of goods and the freedom to provide services
8. Horizontal direct effect of the free movement provisions:: Angonese, Raccanelli and Erny
9. EU citizenship as the fifth freedom?
10. EU citizenship and the convergence of the freedoms
11. Student mobility and free movement law: Bidar, Förster and L.N.
12. The effect of EU citizenship on inward migration from third countries: Dereci, McCarthy, Rahman
13. The implementation of Article 7 Capital Requirements Directive in Germany and the UK
14. Transitional provisions for workers: EU-10, Bulgaria and Romania
15. Fissures in the Internal Market: The Eurozone Crisis and the Freedoms
16. Deepening Service Liberalization

Schedule

The seminar will be held on two different days, one in Cambridge, another in Berlin.

Seminar in Cambridge

Sunday, 7 December 2014 – arrival of German guests in Cambridge

Monday, 8 December 2014 – presentation of the first half of the Seminar Papers

Tuesday, 9 December 2014 – departure of German guests

Seminar in Berlin

Thursday, 11 December 2014 – arrival of British guests in Berlin

Friday, 12 December 2014 – presentation of the second half of the Seminar Papers

Saturday, 13 December 2014 – departure of British guests

Papers need to be submitted no later than 30 November 2014.

Requirements and Assessment (FU Berlin only)

This seminar targets undergraduate students of law or political science and is open to Erasmus and graduate students in these fields. The maximum number of participants from the Freie Universität is 16.

All seminar papers can be written in English or German, all oral presentations will be in English. The length of the paper shall not exceed 3.000 words (without footnotes, bibliography, and table of contents). The oral presentation must not exceed 20 minutes at the most and is followed by a discussion. Assessment: paper (80%), presentation (20%).

Each topic shall ideally be assigned to one student from the Freie Universität Berlin, and to one student from Cambridge. This will lead to the articulation of different viewpoints and enrich the discussion.

Registration Procedure (FU Berlin only)

The registration for this seminar is mandatory. Please register until 07 July 2014 noon by email to junprofoeffr@zedat.fu-berlin.de.

Please add the following information:

- Topic of choice selected from the list provided for the seminar
- one alternative topic
- name, address, registration number, semester of study
- a few sentences on your motivation to take part in the seminar
- overview of your marks.

A general briefing for participants will be held in room 2202 (BO 3) on 07 July 2014, 14.00-15.00 hours.

Questions about the seminar or on individual topics can also be discussed personally with me. Please arrange for an appointment by sending an email to junprofoeffr@zedat.fu-berlin.de.

Costs (FU Berlin only)

As a general rule, individual travel and subsistence costs (accommodation and meals) are to be covered by seminar participants. The amount estimated is of about 350€.

The Freie Universität Berlin and the Ernst-Reuter Gesellschaft will cover up to 100 € corresponding to the travel and subsistence costs for FU students. We are currently looking into securing further financial contributions covering partially the remaining costs expected. Details will be explained upon the briefing on 07 July 2014.