About
General	With some 5,000 students and 450 staff members, The Faculty of Law of the University of Amsterdam is one of the largest faculties in the Netherlands. It offers students a wide variety of courses and has a strong international orientation, with both a global and a European focus. The Faculty of Law favors an interdisciplinary approach, collaborating with other law schools in the Netherlands and incorporating such fields as economics, psychology, sociology and even health care with the study of law. The faculty maintains strong ties with the corporate world and many staff members are also legal practitioners. Social engagement is another

	characteristic of both staff and students, who frequently offer their services to various law clinics. Since the summer of 2017 the faculty is located on Roeterseiland Campus, an open city campus designed to offer future-proof teaching and research facilities. The university offers students many possibilities to develop themselves in or outside the university.
Education	The Faculty offers three bachelors programmes (two specialised and one general) and eighteen masters (LLM) programmes. Several of these LLM programmes are taught in English.
Academic tradition	The research undertaken at the Faculty of Law is characterized by its international orientation and its high standards.
