Additional Programs of Study
LL.M. Program in U.S. Legal Studies	UConn Law offers a general LL.M. program for lawyers who obtained their first law degree outside the U.S. The program offers certificates of specialization in seven areas: corporate and regulatory compliance, energy and environmental regulation, financial services regulation, intellectual property, international human rights, tax law, and the foundations of U.S. law. https://llm.uconn.edu/programs/us-legal-studies/
LL.M. in Energy and Environmental Law Students	The Energy and Environmental LL.M. will help students develop expertise in global energy needs, climate change, renewable energy policy and environmental policy and land use. Students will have access to externships, the semester in DC and applied research in numerous areas. https://llm.uconn.edu/programs/energy-and-environmental-law/
LL.M. in Governance, Risk Management and Compliance	The Governance, Risk Management and Compliance LL.M. offers students an opportunity to study legal and regulatory risk within organizations. Students will gain competence in the law regarding enterprise risk management and governance. https://llm.uconn.edu/programs/governance-risk-management-and-compliance/
LL.M. in Human Rights and Social Justice	UConn Law's LL.M. in Human Rights and Social Justice offers students the opportunity to integrate the international and domestic dimensions of social justice lawyering. Students can take classes at the law school and at the Human Rights Institute . https://llm.uconn.edu/programs/human-rights-and-social-justice/
LL.M. in Insurance Law	UConn Law's LL.M. in Insurance Law is the top destination for lawyers and students from the U.S. and around the world who seek serious graduate training in insurance and financial services law. https://llm.uconn.edu/programs/insurance-law/
LL.M. to J.D. Transfer	LL.M. students who obtain good grades may also apply to our J.D. program without having to take the LSAT, and if accepted, can transfer most of their LL.M. credits to their J.D. program. https://llm.uconn.edu/apply/
Doctor of Laws (S.J.D.)	The S.J.D. Program is intended for individuals who have demonstrated evidence of superior scholarly potential and who are engaged in, or plan to pursue, careers in academia, government service, or the judiciary. https://law.uconn.edu/admissions/sjd-admissions/

Student Services
Student Services Office	The Student Services Office creates an open and welcoming environment for all students. The Office provides support for professional, academic or personal matters; offers programs on wellness; connects students with resources necessary for their academic success; provides accommodations for students with different abilities; and serves as a liaison between students, faculty and staff.
Disability Services	Student Services staff are trained to provide accommodations for students. Please send requests and documentation to Student Services, at law.access@uconn.edu as soon as possible after being admitted. Please refer to the University of Connecticut Documentation Guidelines: https://csd.uconn.edu/documentation-guidelines/
Housing	Furnished housing will cost anywhere between $450 - $700 per month for a room or apartment. UConn Law has a number of connections with landlords in the Hartford area who offer such accommodation. Please contact lawexchange@uconn.edu for more information.
Student Organizations	The Law School has over 30 active student organizations. Groups run the spectrum from the ice hockey team, Capital Punishment to the Connecticut Alliance of International Lawyers and the Public Interest Law Group to the Christian Legal Society. If your interests are not piqued by the current organizations, you are welcomed and encouraged to form your own.

UConn Identification Cards & Student Numbers

UConn PeopleSoft ID: Your UConn ID number (often called your PeopleSoft number) is a seven digit number specifically assigned to you. This ID number is often referenced when discussing course registration and billing.

NetID: Your NetID gives you access to your e-mail, online course management systems (HuskyCT), and other services on campus. Once you receive your NetID, please go to <https://netid.uconn.edu> to reset your password. Once you activate your NetID password, you will use the same password for your e-mail account (below). You can use this number to access the Student Administration system also known as PeopleSoft. For security reasons, we strongly recommend that you change your password the first time you login. You will use PeopleSoft to access your grades, view your fee bill, etc. You will NOT use this system to register for classes.

UConn Email: UConn uses Gmail to administer student email accounts. More information is available at <http://g.uconn.edu/google-mail/>. You will use your NetID to access your student email. You must check your email very often as this is the primary way administrative offices at UConn will contact you.

NETID

You should receive your NetId with instructions and activation code in two emails.

You will need to go to the NetID site to activate: <https://netid.uconn.edu/>

Click on "Activate NetId"

If you don't receive them you can go to NetID and click on "Find NetID".

If you need help from the University Information Technology Services (UITs) you can call or email them: helpcenter@uconn.edu or 860-486-4357.
